Live session activity

PRACTICE #1

Analyze the information in the green box. Then, add verbs to the chart from list of REGULAR verbs on slide 2. Finally, practice your pronunciation and record your voice as you say your list of verbs.

Pronunciation of ED

The pronunciation of words ending in ED depends on the final consonant (sound). There are three ways to pronounce ED:

/id/	/t/	/d/
T wanted D needed	P helped K looked SH washed CH watched GH laughed TH breathed SS kissed C danced X fixed	L called N cleaned R offered G damaged V loved S used W followed Y enjoyed Z amazed
Voiced Sound = uses the vocal cords and they produce a vibration or humming sound in the throat. (Touch your throat to feel it)	VOICELESS	VOICED

/id/	/t/	/d/
Accepted	Cooked	Planned
Minded	Walked	Liked
Counted	Looked	Played
Expected	Watched	Starded

DISCUSSION Past and future vacations

Learning objective: discuss past vacations and retell a story using the simple past

Live session activity

B PRACTICE. Ask your classmates about their last vacations. Ask these questions or use your own ideas. Pay attention to the pronunciation of did you.

Join your sharing group and socialize. Take 20 min. Take notes. Then come back to the general group and share. Who had an interesting vacation? Tell the class who and why?

Where did you spend your last vacation?

How long was your vacation?

Who were you with?

What did you do?

How was the weather?

What would you like to do on your next vacation?

SCHOOL DAYS

Jim Hi, Kyle. Why didn't you come yesterday?
Kyle Where?
Jim Our high school reunion! The class of 1996!
Kyle Oh, I completely forgot about that.
Jim Well, you missed out. We had a great time.
Kyle Did lots of people go?
Jim Yes, they did. I met up with some of our old friends. Do you remember Alicia?
Kyle Yeah.
Jim Well, she majored in Sports Science, got her degree and now she's a Gym teacher at the school.
Kyle Wow! What about teachers? Did you see Mrs. Armstrong? She taught Biology.
Jim No, she left the school in 2001.
Kyle What about Mr. Wilkins?
Jim Yeah, I spoke to him. He's exactly the same and he still teaches Geography. He told me to tell you "Suva," but I didn't really understand.
Kyle It's a city. Wow! How did he remember that?
Jim What?
Kyle Well, I failed an exam once because I didn't remember the capital of Fiji. I always found Geography difficult.
Jim Me too.

Lucas Wow! Nice view!
Michelle I suppose so.
Lucas What's the matter? Are you afraid of heights? Ha, ha, ha!
Michelle Don't laugh. I'm a little scared, that's all.
Lucas I thought you liked skiing and all the adventure. You came here last year with Tanya.
Michelle Yeah, but you weren't here last year, so you don't know what happened.
Lucas Why? What happened?
Michelle It was our last day here, and we were on the ski lift. Suddenly, there was a loud noise and the ski lift stopped. We were stuck up here for three hours!
Lucas You spent three hours up here?
Michelle Yes. We were terrified! Tanya panicked and wanted to jump but we were 150 feet above the ground!
Lucas What did you do?
Michelle We waited. We just sat up here and sang. It was a terrible experience.
Lucas I can imagine.
Michelle Oh, why did I come skiing again?
Lucas OK, calm down. Let's think about next year. We can spend our vacation on a tropical island and sunbathe by the ocean or do water sports.
Michelle OK, that doesn't sound dangerous.

HOW WAS YOUR VACATION?
