B

Listen to three people talk about different situations. Check the two words that best describe each person's feelings.

1.

Woman: I was driving with a friend in the countryside last weekend when I saw a little puppy on the side of the road. There weren't any houses nearby, and the dog seemed to be lost. I was worried it might get run over, so I stopped the car and went to check it out. The puppy seemed to be really scared and very hungry, too. I think someone must have left it there. Maybe they didn't want it anymore. Some people are so cruel!

2.

Man: The other day, I saw a guy acting pretty strangely. It was about ten o'clock at night, and he was standing behind a tree watching my neighbor's house. He probably thought nobody could see him because it was dark, but I noticed him when I took my dog out for a walk. As soon as he saw me, he hid behind the tree. I pretended that I hadn't seen him.

3.

Woman: One of my friends invited me to see a movie with her last week. I was sure she'd said Wednesday night, and I'd written it down in my calendar as Wednesday. On Tuesday night, I didn't come home until late because I had gone to a friend's house for dinner. And I had left my cell phone at home! When I got home, there was an angry message on my voice mail from my friend, and she'd sent me several texts. We were supposed to see the movie Tuesday night, and she'd waited for me in front of the theater for an hour.
