

The Desert Museum is very nice, there are a lot of extremely large dinosaur fossils, there are too much plants and animals from the mexican desert, it's a very nice place

The entire Catrina museum is decorated with too many colorful tones, images of very famous people and has really handmade furniture.

The center park is very nice, at night are very much light but are extremely people

