

Vocabulary

Bicycle + line = bicycle line

a division of a road marked off with painted lines, for use by cyclists.

Bus + station = bus station

a terminal where buses arrive and depart

Recycling + center = recycling center

an establishment where process materials and remanufacturing them into new products.

Train + stop = train stop

a device for automatically applying the brakes to stop a railroad train.

Street + light = street light

a light illuminating a road, typically mounted on a tall pole.

Taxi + stand = taxi stand

a place where taxicabs park while waiting to be engaged.

Green + space = green space

an area of grass, trees, or other vegetation set apart for recreational or aesthetic purposes in an otherwise urban environment

Parking + garage = parking garage

a building, often of several stories, that provides parking space.

Subway + station = subway station

a terminal where subway load and unload passengers

Traffic + jam = traffic jam

a line of road traffic at or near a standstill because of road construction, an accident, or heavy congestion.

Sentences ...

- The Alameda has green space.
- In Allende there is no bicycles line.
- Near the school is the bus stop.
- Maresa is the recycling center in Saltillo.
- I have never been to a train stop.
- Street lights keep the city illuminated.
- Outside the bus station there is a taxi station.
- There is a taxi station near my house.
- In the center is the largest parking garage called San Esteban

- Regina goes to the subway station to travel to the Monterrey Festivals
- The traffic jam in Monterrey is terrible.