

7

Rewrite these sentences. Find another way to say each sentence using the words given.

1. There are too many cars in this city. (fewer)

There should be fewer cars in this city.

2. We need fewer buses and cars downtown. (traffic)

There is too much traffic in the center

3. Where's the subway station? (Could you)

Could you tell me where the subway station is?

4. There isn't enough public parking. (parking garages)

There should be enough public parking lots.

5. How often does the bus come? (Do you)

Do you know how often the bus come?

6. What time does the last train leave? (Can you)

Can you tell me what time the last train leaves?

8

Answer these questions about your city or another city you know.

1. Are there any traffic-free zones? If so, where are they located?

In neighborhoods far from the center, boulevard or bridges

2. How do most people travel to and from work?

Most travel by factory or public transportation to and from work.

3. What's the rush hour like?

The transport fills up very early at 7 or in the afternoon between 1 and 2

4. What's the city's biggest problem?

The biggest problem with this transportation is the lack of units and not having an established schedule.

5. What has the city done about it?

There are times where they happen often but there are others where they don't

6. Is there anything else the city could do?

That they have established schedules and more units