Listen to three conversations about movies. Check True or False.

1.

Woman: What's that?

Man: It's an old mystery movie I downloaded.

Woman: Oh, I love those! What's this one about?

Man: It's about a group of people who go on a sailing trip. But there's a murderer on board the boat because passengers keep getting killed.

Woman: Oh, yeah? And have you figured out who's doing it yet?

Man: Not really, but I think it might be the captain.

Woman: And how's the movie so far?

Man: It's getting pretty scary. Want to watch it with me?

2.

Man: I saw a great documentary last night. It's a true story about this guy who sailed a boat around the world on his own. He was only 18. It's unbelievable – and really well done.

Woman: Amazing.

Man: Yeah. He ran into a few big storms, and his boat overturned a couple of times, but he managed to survive.

Woman: How long did it take him?

Man: It took him 11 weeks altogether.

Woman: Incredible.

3.

Woman: Have you seen this one yet? It's got my favorite actor in it. He's so gorgeous!

Man: Yeah, I saw it last week. But it's not one of his best movies, I'm afraid.

Woman: What's it about?

Man: It's a love story. It's about how these two people meet by chance on a flight from New York to London, and then they don't see each other again for five years. By then, they're both in unhappy marriages, so of course, everything starts getting complicated. But the story is kind of strange, and the characters aren't very believable.

Woman: Thanks for warning me.
